FRESHMEN

We have to start somewhere! As "baby nurses" our growth involves TPR's, bed baths, and the "art" of emptying bedpans.

STUDENT NURSE

Between the nervous innocence of entrance exams and a dozen red roses on an all white uniform, is a student nurse.

Student Nurse — patient's love her, doctors tolerate her, surgeons scream at her, instructors hide from her, head nurses ignore her, boyfriends pray for her, and heaven helps her.

Student Nurse — No one can give nine complete baths, five Fleets enemas, one hundred twenty-three injections, lose seven Bic pens, empty eighteen bedpans, take twenty-five A.M. TPR's, and emotionally support seventeen women patient's in one day and still get along with her roommate.

Student Nurse — she is so darling with Demerol in her hair, Solu-B down her pinafore, hot coffee on her shoes, bathroom tissue in her pocket, fruitgum on her medicine tray, and Betadine nail polish.

No one on earth loves weekends more, has such an enormous appetite, gets blamed for so many things, faces so many empty mailboxes, and still tolerate round pieces of "meat" for dinner.

She is the picture of love to our geriatric patient, wisdom with piles of worksheets, "our baby" to mom and dad, Sweetheart to her boyfriend, and the future with a new born in her still childish arms.

No one else can sleep through class, pretend to enjoy a guest speaker, fail so many poptests, write so many bibs on unread articles, avoid so many library fines, view so many trainexes, nor receive so many "hand outs." She does all of this and then ends up in Psychiatric training where she talks carefully, lives on Hardie's hamburgers, yells at cows, is the "Queen" at the patient dance, and checks for her keys one hundred times.

She comes in dead tired, aching feet, weak hands, yet stays up as late as possible, then she kisses everyone goodnight, fixes a clean uniform, gives her shoes a swab, crawls into a half-made bed full of stuffed animals, paper clips and pop-corn kernels — says "goodnight all" — only to add 'Don't forget to check on me in the morning!'

She came a girl, leaves a woman;

She came a teen, leaves a young adult;

She came untrained, leaves a professional;

She came for herself, she leaves for others;

She came with love, and she leaves

For good sportsmanship in all sports, hot wheels Nancy Henson, the seniors' choice for MOST ATHLETIC.

Willingness to take part in school activities wins green thumb Rachel King, MOST SCHOOL SPIRITED.

Cute ways, cute face, cute figure, make Linda Daniels win the seniors' votes for CUTEST.

Sandy Moore displays a winsome smile and candid personality which captured for her the title FRIENDLIEST.

Witty ideas lead Chris Griscome to mischievous acts. Wonder if Mrs. Titus will like this act of wit?

The uniqueness and special rapport Richard Snow shares with everyone, wins him the title of MOST PROFESSIONAL.

The outstanding qualities of Mary Lynn Copeland are indicative of her future success. Next year she may be janitor.

You can always depend on Paula Ross, even if it is to hold up the U.S. mail.

The striking good looks of Jane Davis catch the eye of her fellow students and earn for her the title of MOST ATTRACTIVE.

For abilities to do "just about anything," Shirley Silver is MOST TALENTED.

Could this be the reason Barbara Wood holds the title MOST INTELLIGENT?

Possessing a combination of all the traits of the superlatives, Carol Tom is the natural choice for BEST ALL AROUND.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM THIS YEAR'S PLACEBO

If nobody loves you,
You can be sure it's your own fault.

"I could care less about apathy!"

Often we, as nursing students, get bogged down with the "tyranny of the urgent" (tests, uniforms, alarm clocks) and neglect our individual personalities. Not only do we desire to know ourselves; but each and everyone of us Needs to do a little soul-searching.

--So Ends Organization!

ACTIVITIES

Orientation

Most people today use the cliché "times are changing", and so they are. However, there is one known exception at Baptist each September. All the new Freshmen coming in are no different than the ones the year before. The onlooker is still amazed at the bustling energy and inborn excitement of the new class as the members register for the coming year, carry in all their belongings, and still manage to greet everyone with a smile and a tear.

Picnic

Tradition has it that the first day in September that all classes are at school there has been a "get-together" picnic at Miller Park. Each year there is food, entertainment, and a lot of "rapping". The picnic has always been a success. How could it be anything but when there is so much warmth and friendliness between students, entertainers, and even faculty!

Halloween

"Trick or Treat", spooks, witches, black cats and jack-o-lanterns are only a few signs of Halloween that are seen in this season at Baptist. At the annual Halloween party, the students are arrayed in their costumes for judging, skits and the simple air of Halloween.

Sports

Students take time out from busy schedules to actively participate in sports.

Christmas

Although the true meaning of Christmas was projected in the Convocation, students and faculty managed to "party it up" at the annual Christmas Dance. Here, as before, the Court and Queen were presented.

Half-Way Dinner

The Junior students counted it another milestone passed as they gathered together for the traditional "Half-Way Dinner." Tension was lifted and hearts appeared to be "young and gay" as the girls celebrated a year and a half gone by. Where some reminisced, others looked ahead to the Senior Banquet. Either way, it was a fun-filled occasion for all.

Senior Dinner

As the underclassmen battled the perils of Fundamentals and Med-Surg., the Seniors put aside all books to look ahead to graduation. A covered-dish dinner and modeling of different uniforms high-lighted their evening. All minds were centered on one thing ... Registered Nurse.

Freshman Presentation

The industrious Freshman class presented the faculty with a "small token of their appreciation". The problem is . . . What is "it"?

Student Nurse Of the Year

Each year the school picks a student nurse that exemplifies the utmost of the "typical" Student Nurse. This is an honor to hold and to behold. This year Darlene Whitaker, a junior student, received this honor. Darlene moved on to represent our school in the District #5 Student Nurses Association of North Carolina, where she again "walked away" with the title of Student Nurse of the year. She then went to state competition and received many honorable mentions. Some of Darlene's various hobbies include studying, dating, sports and all those really "fun" things. We are very glad to be represented by this vivacious, young and beautiful American. Keep it up, Darlene!

Spring Follies

The Spring Follies are presented each year by the Junior Class, to finance the Jr.-Sr. Prom. Each year a Follies Court is chosen during the two night performance. This year Susan Smith, a freshman, was crowned queen. This year's "fun" proved to be very successful and exciting.

Bandings

Each class looks forward every year to the unique moment when its members receive that black band that denotes achievement and knowledge. Whether it be a "Junior" or "Senior" stripe, the recipient is delighted. This little token manages to "boost" the student through the next year.

Graduation

As the big day finally rolls around, the Seniors have mixed feelings. Are they "lucky"? Are they "frightened"? Or are they "sad"? As an on-looker, one feels that all these emotions are there. But it cannot be denied they are certainly "uptight" about something. Good-bye Seniors. You will never be forgotten.

What ?
Matters

Some Men See Things
As They Are
and Say,
Why.
I Dream Things That Never Were
and Say,
Why
Not!

As Long As

Enthusiasm

Lasts,

So

Long

Is

Youth

Still With Us!

Give Me
This Day
My Daily
Opinion, and Forgive Me
the One
I Had Yesterday

The Learner Becomes the Learned

Yet He Continues Ever to Learn

Live each day to the fullest
Get the most from each hour,
each day,
and
each age of your life.
Then,
you can look forward
with confidence
and
back
without regrets.
